

I am strongly opposed to the idea of punishing private schools by requiring some sort of new registry. How does this improve education in any way at all? What parents need now is the opportunity to choose the best school fit for their child without having to worry that they might miss out on the opportunity to play sports and join clubs. There is zero benefit to kids in this proposal!