

The government simply does not have the right to do this. Private schools should be allowed to do these things under their own jurisdiction. I strongly oppose this bill.