

The State should NOT be in charge of private education! Parents should be in charge of what their children learn, like REAL history and economics. NOT the indoctrination of what the state deems they should learn. NOT the states' business!