

Dear Committee Members,

I kindly request that you oppose SB 223. Oregon parents and students choose private education for a reason. Private schools do not need bloated government oversight. We (parents) pay tuition. If our private schools are not performing, we pull our students and the schools cease to exist. Government entities have their hands completely full 'fixing' the current Oregon public school system and do not need additional 'work'.

Regards,
Charles 'Brad' Berlin