

People living in the manufactured home should have the first rights to form the committee to buy the facility.