

Private schools are private to be separate from the overreach of the Education Department of the State or Federal Governments. Stipulating a Private School can voluntarily abide by the States values in education cannot then be interpreted to mean if you don't volunteer you will be excluded. That is not volunteering. That is submission to government overreach and bureaucracy.