

I oppose ranked choice voting because it heavily favors the Democrat majority in this state. Republicans who rank only the Republican in an election, because they reject the policies of Democrats running the same election, will essentially have their votes cancelled if the voting goes to a second round.

The current system with runoff elections after primary elections is much more transparent to the average voter. Citizen mistrust of government will increase if this murky system of deciding elected contests is used.