

Public schools are not providing adequate education and the curriculum being forced is very worrisome. Private education needs to remain distinct and separate from the public school system. Voucher system needs to be implemented. Stop state take over now!