

ODE should not have over site over private schools, allowing ODE to control private school curriculum. The parents of private school children pay for the environment and for the private school curriculum, avoiding the public school curriculum that they dont want their children involved in.