

Our daughter has been attending private school for the past two years and we want to see our school continue to have the freedom to choose to run the school the way they always have without the interference of the ODE.