

Children's education should be allowed to be customized based on student capacity & style of learning.

Registering private schools with the department of education opens the door to limiting the potential of educators. Private schools should be given their independence.