

Private schools exist for a REASON: we don't want governmental control of education. If this bill becomes law, my family will be among the many to leave the state of Oregon.