

This bill would render private schools irrelevant. They would just become expensive public schools if they are subject to the same curriculum and policies, etc.
It would force thousands of us to homeschool or flee the state.