

This bill hides too many important issues that are important for everyone to know. This goes against my wife and I sending my children to private school so we have some say in what they learn. This bill also goes against our freedom of religion. Please vote no.