

I support ranked choice voting. I used it in Benton County last election and it was easy to use. I could vote third party without worrying about a spoiler effect. I hope that it will encourage a larger range of candidates to run for election.