

YES! I support this amendment. Oregon's citizens should not be held hostage due to political grandstanding. If elected officials refuse to show up to do their job, they should not be able to hold up the good work of the Oregon Legislature.