

I support safety laws/regulations for growing and processing of marijuana. Safety laws should be placed on growing marijuana to protect forests, wildlife, environment, air quality, residents, property of others including land, livestock, homes, businesses.