

I support this measure because it address a serious safety concern by requiring processing plants to be within areas that have fire stations and hydrants near them.

I live near a proposed processing plant in rural Washington county that has only a volunteer staffed fire station and no water supply. This proposed law would prevent this serious fire danger from being placed in a rural forest area. This is one reason I strongly support this.