

I believe they should be kept separate. It seems as if the over reach is asking private schools using private money to be subject to that which can be afforded by public schools. This is oxymoronic actually. Please realize the ludicrousness of this bill.