

I just wanted to quickly talk about my life long friend...

He hasn't been in trouble since I got back in contact with him almost a year ago. The officers have also made comments about how he doesn't talk back anymore. We have started plans for post prison and actually found a job for him for after his release date. It's an amazing opportunity since he previously worked for this person. They said because of him they are a multimillion dollar business now. They said once he gets out they are going to start looking into retiring and give him part of the business. I've been working very hard to make this transition out of prison as smooth as possible for him. All I ask is him to be taken into consideration is the bill passes. I can't promise he can keep him out of trouble because in the end it's up to him and his actions. I can promise I will do everything in my power to help him and be there for him though. Just recently his mom said I've been the only one who has stood by his side which he's never had. I believe him knowing someone does care it will help his future development.
