

This bill is a bad idea, as a wildlife control operator we see lots of issues with over population of all rodents. I do think that the wildlife of Oregon should be managed by ODFW, The cougar over population is one example. Thank you.