

I am greatly effected by the cannabis industry in my own home! They use up more water than any other agriculture in our area. They will change our daily lives and the lives of many native species to the Pacific Northwest. We already had one wildfire run through our area.