

I oppose any measure or bill that gives one municipality in our state the strength to speak for the rest of the state. The Democrat party's policies are placing our liberties in the great state of Oregon in a stranglehold.