

Climate change is upon us, and the activity of Beavers are known to assist not only in water storage, but it the continued health of fish runs. We should let them do their job! It makes no sense to spend taxpayer money on water mitigation to do what Beavers can already do for free. I feel VERY strongly about this!