

I am opposed to any rule that prohibits or punishes legislators from denying quorum in order to negotiate. This is used as a last resort and is backed by the Oregon Constitution. Both Democrats and Republicans have denied quorum, as it is sometimes the only tool available.