

If legislators do not show up to work (in person or remotely by telephone or Zoom) they should not be paid or receive per diem.