

I oppose SB223 as I believe it violates the rights of private schools and their students. Private schools are private for a reason. They should be held to high standards and outcomes by their board and parents, not by state regulations.