

I was raised with 12 years of private school education. My parents sacrificed so that I could learn to become a great citizen of the United States. The United States that was based on the honesty, faith and integrity of the leadership of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of our first Republic. How far down the scale we have come. Vote no on SB 223. I vote and look for politicians with spiritual attitudes and who live their lives with integrity.