

I, Colleen Garren, along with every person I know vehemently oppose this Bill. If I wanted the government meddling in my children's education I would've saved a whole lot of money and sent them to public school. How dare this bill even be proposed? There is such a thing as freedom of religion.

That is all.

-Colleen and everyone I know