

I am in favor of passing this legislation because the wanton slaughter of wildlife for no purpose other than for prize money and recreation is unethical. This unsportsmanlike activity reflects poorly on our state. A recent poll indicates strong support by the majority of Oregonians for a ban of coyote killing contests. Several other states including Washington and Colorado have already prohibited these contests...and Oregon should follow suit.