

Beavers are a vital component for Oregon's ecological health, and can provide Oregonians with vast positive benefits like flood control and improved water quality, and thus should receive adequate protections. Please remove their predatory status!