

I am in support of HB 3239. Allowing cannabis processing facilities in rural areas such as Chehalem Mountain defies logic and common sense. The potential fire risk, hazardous conditions, and environmental impact on water resources necessitates the passing of this bill.