

The super majority in our state right now is very dangerous and the ability to deny quorum is in our constitution for a reason. It is necessary and has been used by both parties.