

I support SCR 17 because it puts justice and equity at the forefront of Oregon's policy agenda and establishes the principle that historically underrepresented communities will have a voice in policy decisions.