

My husband worked for DEQ for years until he retired. We BOTH are strong advocates for cleaning up our environment and growing cleanup efforts so we will leave our Portland and the world in a better place now/for generations to come. Please make sure you do everything possible on behalf of those children's children!