

I ask you to support this bill because Oregon needs incentives for community-based projects that will increase energy affordability, energy independence and disaster resilience. And we especially need jobs in clean energy. Thank you.