

Mandatory minimum sentences are inhumane and are not decreasing crime. I fully support looking at each case individually and encourage getting people support rather than a blind blanket punishment.