

I am writing in support of HB 2728.

I can think of no reason that coyotes, or any animals, should be killed for competition or cash prizes. There is no scientific evidence to support this practice, and I can't imagine a moral justification either.

Again, please pass this bill and stop wildlife killing contests that have no scientific basis and degrade the reputation of ethical sportsman.