

Mega-dairies are harmful for communities, for the land, for polluting the water and also mega dairies create more carbon emissions from cow's poop. Mega-dairies are not sustainable. Mega-dairies create environmental problems which only support the large farm producers. Mega-dairies are big industrial businesses which are not supportive of small local farms.