

This is a means of controlling a predator problem for the wildlife deer, antelope, elk and domesticated livestock this is a way of controlling to protect The Fawns and calves of the above said animals. It's up to us as citizens and hunters and conservationist to protect our wildlife and this is a means for us to do so.