

Issues of water security should not privilege large industrial users. I support this moratorium and de-industrial processes that are based on social equity in water consumption for both humans and nonhumans alike.