

Hello, I am writing in support of HB 2932. Police accountability is much needed. Statistics show that use of force is incredibly high among law enforcement officers. Having a database where citizens can see this data without the need for records request will be an invaluable tool.