

HB 2607 - taxes of any kind are spread over the entire spectrum of citizenry no matter what your financial ability. Hopefully this will continue as no one sector of society should be singled out as a special taxing unit. Does society want what is good for their fellow Oregonians; of course. Although not at the expense of taxing special interests in society any differently because elected officials promise "we will make this right for you".