

I have been utilizing electric security fences for the better half of a decade. This is a safe and effective solution to eliminate criminal activity at our sites and reduce crime drastically in saturated market. Electric security fences should be allowed to be installed in Oregon statewide.