

Little by little our 2nd Amendment rights are being chipped away, I DO NOT support new legislation to alter those rights in any way. My need to protect myself and family has become greater with the decline of police officer numbers and respect.