

The methane releases and water pollution from run-off are only 2 dangers of large industrial dairies. Their economic impact on small dairy farmers is devastating. These impacts must be evaluated and adjudicated publicly at licensing and renewal.