

Justice requires equity for all citizens. Overtime pay is a part of equity for workers. It is time for Oregon to shine in steps toward greater justice. And we can well afford to do without all the "stuff" we discard while paying a bit more for food, to support farm workers more equitable pay.
Thank you for your thoughtful consideration.