

I am in support of HB 2481 because tactics and military equipment meant to be used against enemies of the United States should not be used against its citizens on US soil. We need to be treating our angry citizens like citizens, not insurgents.