

Being a native Oregonian, mother and grandmother, I cannot understand why you would put our soil, air, and water in jeopardy of contamination. PLEASE listen to the average person rather than the greedy, selfish corporations who do not even live in our community.