

Mink are highly susceptible to the viruses that cause Covid-19. Outbreaks have been documented within fur farms, including farms in Oregon. These farms house mink in horrific conditions which can facilitate viral spread. I support a total ban on these farms, which pose a public health risk and promote cruelty.